Third-Party Defendant.

DEFENDANT AND THIRD-PARTY PLAINTIFF Builders Resource, Inc., as and for its third-party complaint, by its attorneys Lambert & Weiss, alleges upon information and belief as follows:

1. Defendant and third-party plaintiff Builders Resource, Inc. is a Massachusetts corporation with offices at 180 Main Street, Blackstone, Massachusetts.
2. Upon information and belief, third-party plaintiff Bay Crane Service Inc. is a New York corporation with offices located at 11-02 43rd Avenue, Long Island City, New York 11101.
3. Starting in or about May, 2006, third-party plaintiff entered into certain rental agreements with third-party defendant whereby third-party defendant provided certain cranes to the defendant and third-party plaintiff, along with timber crane mats, at a certain construction site located in Bronx County, City and State of New York.

4. In or about March, 2007, plaintiff ALF Rental Company, Inc. commenced an action against defendant and third-party plaintiff Builders Resource, Inc. and other defendants in the Supreme Court, Bronx County, alleging that defendant and third-party plaintiff owed the plaintiff a certain sum for the rental of hardwood crane mats. A copy of ALF's complaint is annexed hereto as Exhibit "A".

5. Thereafter, on or about April 19, 2007, defendant and third-party plaintiff filed a notice of removal in the U.S. District Court, Southern District of New York to remove the ALF action from the Supreme Court, Bronx County to the U.S. District Court, Southern District of New York.

6. Thereafter, defendant and third-party plaintiff interposed an answer to the complaint, a copy of which is annexed hereto as Exhibit "B".

7. In its answer, the defendant and third-party plaintiff alleged that it had no privity of contract with the plaintiff ALF Rental Company, Inc., and that the third-party plaintiff did not owe any money to the plaintiff for the timber crane mats.

8. The obligation, if any, to pay the plaintiff for the timber crane mats is the obligation of the third-party defendant and not of the third-party plaintiff.

9. In the event that the plaintiff ALF recovers a judgment against the third-party plaintiff in this action by reason of the allegations set forth in its complaint, such responsibility on the part of the third-party defendant by operation of law or otherwise, would have been caused and brought about by the failure of the third-party defendant to pay the plaintiff for the timber crane mats.

10. Accordingly, the third-party defendant would be liable to the third-party plaintiff, Builders Resource, Inc. for any amounts recoverable upon the claims made against the third-party plaintiff in this action.

WHEREFORE, in the event that plaintiff recovers judgment against defendant Builders Resource, Inc., said defendant and third-party plaintiff demands judgment over and against third-party defendant Bay Crane Services Inc. for full indemnification, or, in the alternative, for contribution, awarding defendant and third-party plaintiff Builders Resource, Inc. such other, and further relief as may be just and proper, and awarding defendant and third-party plaintiff Builders Resource, Inc., fees, costs and disbursements.
